native northwest

A BC-based brand that creates products displaying native arts + cultures, designed by Indigenous artists, and built on a foundation of respect + authenticity.

- 100% of the art featured on Native Northwest products is designed by Indigenous artists. Each of our exchanges, from the sourcing and compensation of Indigenous artists, to our staff and merchants, are part of a lifelong relationship between Indigenous cultures and the communities we pledge to honour and respect.
- All artists have provided consent and contractual permission for their art to be featured on Native Northwest products
- Artist names are acknowledged on all product packaging
- Cultural traditions are honoured by acknowledging cultural affiliation on product packaging
- Artists are paid in fees and royalties

PACKING YOUR

tiffin for lunch

For the top layer: This is often the bulk of the meal, a protein-rich and flavor-packed dish that is eaten over rice or scooped up with bread.

For the middle layer:

The second largest layer usually contains something refreshing like a pickle, salad or fresh fruit. Add reusable muffin cups as dividers if needed.

For the bottom layer:

Usually a carbohydrate, this is the foundation for the flavor-packed foods in the middle and top layer.
